We are financial consultants to entrepreneurs with offices based in Manchester city centre, providing expertise in accountancy solutions and commercial business advisory services.

Our name, derived from the adjective ‘sedulous’, epitomises the work ethic, commitment and attention to detail we perform on each project to ensure the highest possible level of service. We offer a full range of services from the inception of the business concept, throughout growth of the entity and on to exit strategies.

There is no typical clientele; we operate on new start businesses to multinational stock listed companies.
