At the centre of the Bund—China’s most sought after waterfront estate—stands Bund18. Formerly the Chinese headquarters for the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China,the stunning 1923 column-fronted building built in the popular neo-classical style by British architectural firm, Palmer & Turner.Offering unparalleled panoramic views of the Huangpu River and financial mecca of Shanghai’s financial centre in Pudong, Bund18 has been carefully restored by a team of Venetian architects from Kokaistudios.
