The story begins in 2010 when a young lad from Húsavík, a little fishing town up north, was awarded the title "Chef of the year". The young master chef Gústav Axel Gunnlaugsson has had a passion for food since early childhood but the biggest dream was always of a restaurant of his own. As soon as you find your seat at Sjávargrillið, you realise that the restaurant is a dream that has come true.
