At CanTeen, we believe that no young person should have to face cancer alone. CanTeen supports young people when cancer turns their world upside down and helps them cope with the physical, emotional and practical impact of living with cancer. We're here for 12-24 year olds at every stage of their cancer journey, whether they're dealing with: having cancer themselves a parent, brother or sister being diagnosed with cancer the death of a parent, brother or sister We understand that cancer affects everything, but that it also affects everyone differently. That's why CanTeen's expert staff offer individually tailored support to help every young person deal with the impact that cancer is having on their life.
