The restaurant Domini Canes is located in a place of historical significance: in the old town amongst the churches of St. Peter and St. John. From both the summer terrace and the tables within the restaurant you will see the picturesque St. Peter’s. Let the restaurant take you on a journey into the culinary world, for it is an adventure worth taking whether you are considering a business lunch, a coffee break, a peaceful evening’s relaxation, or meeting a friend over a glass of wine. The restaurant’s good fame is known far beyond the borders of Latvia and the restaurant has become a travel destination of gourmets. Domini Canes is one of the restaurants where the total of the bill matches the quality of the service, not even mentioning the professional mastery of the cooks and their ability to discover new taste combinations.
