III Draakon is an old-fashioned pub wherein all the meals cost 1 unit of money. But double is demanded for the drinks! All the hungry should thereof tuck 1 and the thirsty 2 units of euromoney into their purse otherwise there’s no thought of coming. Whoever is brisk enough to angle out a morsel from the pickles barrel will be rewarded for the trouble and is asked no charge for it. A visitor with a heftier purse is the king yet the lady of the house is always right!
