“Franš” is Belgrade. It's a first-rate of social life, where you show your new clothes, where you present your new love, make business arrangements and celebrate your birthday. “Franš”... That's the stairs and glamorous garden ... The lamps and pleasant atmosphere...The paravane with glued corks that have marked a lot of break ups and reconciliations, political victories, business success and the excellent school marks. “Franš” means all diopter glasses for those who can not see well, it's a blanket to wrap in the garden during chilly nights, candy mints on the way out and rose for each lady, on Fridays and Saturdays. It means gifts for those who are celebrating birthdays and friendly waiters who sing the birthday song, colored umbrellas when it's pouring outside, and it means Julio, Eros, Charles Aznavour, Norah Jones, and light jazz for lunch. It means toys and menus for children, and even bibs, it means thickly lined pictures on the walls and of course the fountain in the garden which reminds of Paris. “Franš” means forty five salads and a symbolic small gourmet burger, the menus for ladies and the menus for gentlemen. “Franš” means fried peppers stuffed with cheese, homemade gnocchi, hot buns from our own bakery, pastries from patisserie, and of course an amazing selection of wines. With restaurants own laboratory that checks complete food every day, “Franš” belongs to the line of most caring restaurants in Serbia.
