How about spending the evening in a peaceful retreat in the heart of the city centre? Enjoying the sounds of pleasant background music and the sight of happy faces around you underneath the brick arches of ancient vaults while delighting in Croatian traditional dishes and tasting the carefully selected domestic wines... Being a part of the renowned Zagreb gastronomic space created throughout decades by true lovers of this city and the national cuisine... If the abovementioned is what you are looking for during lunch- or dinner-time, when you are alone, in company of an intimate friend or the whole family, or having a major celebration, let the Vinodol restaurant be your first choice.
