With a panoramic view of Sarajevo both in daylight and nighttime, in the restaurant Kibe you can enjoy a selection of national Bosnian dishes and grilled lamb. In its long history, this widely known establishment has provided service to eminent individuals from from all over the world and all spheres of society coming: statesmen, representatives of the European Community, highly acclaimed artists etc... Its outstanding reputation and the quality of its service have been continually built and improved since its opening in March 1988, as a result of hard work of the whole Vreto family, led by their head Sakib Vreto, also known as Kibe. Our kind staff always ready to meet any guest's wishes also contributes to this reputation.
