Located in the heart of Manhattan, Konstantin Vision & Eyewear Center has been delivering expert optical care and luxury designer eyewear for over 25 years. We believe eyewear should be more than just functional—it should enhance your personal style and lifestyle. Our licensed optometrists take the time to understand your vision needs, while our stylists help you discover frames that reflect who you are. With an on-site lens lab and same-day service available, we ensure your glasses don’t just look great—they’re tailored to your life, your comfort, and your vision. Whether you need a comprehensive eye exam, stylish statement frames, or quick repairs and adjustments, our team is here to provide high-touch service, precision fittings, and the highest level of craftsmanship and care.
