Mango Tours is a Travel & Information Technology Company owned and operated by Travelfast International Inc., a major travel consolidator headquartered in San Mateo, California. It specializes in offering low-priced airfares, travel packages, airport transfers, and other travel-related services.

With over 40 years of service under its belt, Mango Tours aims to provide you with only the best experience, from planning your trip up to its completion. With 16 physical branches, easy and secure online booking engine services, and 24/7 Customer Support, you can book your travels from anywhere at any time.

Travel is more than just for fun and relaxation, it’s a lifestyle. When it comes to giving outstanding and memorable adventures, no one does it better than Mango Tours.

Your needs and satisfaction is our top priority. We’ve grown to understand, in our 39 years of service, that planning your travels takes more than just being able to save big on both money and time.

You are guaranteed not only good deals on airfares, travel packages, insurance, and other travel-related services with better value but most especially personalized service through the expert knowledge and guidance of our friendly and professional agents. And because we believe that you deserve nothing less than the best, we’re here to make sure that you get the most out of your vacation by having all your troubles addressed and needs met at one of our 16 strategically-located branches in the US (and one in the Philippines), through our secure online booking engine or with the reliable and ever ready 24/7 customer support travel agents.

Get the best recommendations, resources, and relationships while planning your trips. Be it an adventure in Africa, romantic getaway in Europe, backpacking across Asia or the US, or simply coming home to your loved ones in the Philippines, we have and will continue to be your chosen partner in the world of travel because there’s no stopping us in putting value in your travels.
