Throughout our extensive network of branch offices, the primary business of Tower Loan is consumer installment lending. Each branch has at least one manager and numerous customer service representatives and manager trainees, depending on the number of customers in that branch. Each member of the staff is here to serve and help every customer in a professional manner that is not intimidating at all. Tower Loan also offers our customers sales financing and automobile financing. The corporate headquarters of Tower Loan is in Flowood, Mississippi near the state capitol of Jackson. Each member of the corporate headquarters staff makes it their first priority to serve the branches with the utmost integrity.
