Attorney Roy W. Breslow began practicing law over 40 years ago and has since served on both sides of the legal aisle as a Prosecutor, Deputy Attorney General, and criminal defense attorney. He founded the Breslow Law Offices in 1978, focusing his practice on criminal defense, family, and personal injury law. Recently his daughter, Casey Breslow, left the Essex County Prosecutor’s Office and joined the practice. With offices in Essex and Ocean counties, the Breslows have assisted countless clients in courts across New Jersey.
