It’s just us and that’s a good thing – we bring a fresh approach to the tiling aspect of interior design and work closely with many successful architects and interior designers who value our knowledge and expertise. We welcome clients with a fresh cup of coffee and comfortable surroundings and the Studio is laid out in a way which allows us to create unique schemes for each project. We’ll be with you every step of the way and when you’re happy, we’re happy.
