Dr. Wayne R. Diamond was born and raised in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida where he grew up in the family magic business. Dr. Diamond graduated from the University of Florida, College of Veterinary Medicine in 1981. He initially practiced in Hollywood, Florida and in 1982, relocated to Stuart and opened a practice named Stuart Centre Animal Clinic. In 1985, he built a new facility and named it "Animal Care Extraordinaire". After 2½ years of retirement, Dr. Diamond has decided to return to a career he loves and has recently purchased Boulevard Animal Hospital.

Dr. Diamond and his wife Debbie have two adult sons and a devoted golden retriever. They enjoy traveling as well as the outdoor life synonymous with Florida. On his weekends off, you can find them boating, fishing, scuba diving or snorkeling.
