MH Funerals offer various types of funerals based on your personal requirements and financial situation. All funerals are undertaken with care and understanding. Serving all of South East Queensland, we offer personalised funeral services at a very low cost. From cremation only services to full-service cremation services and burial services. MH Funerals understand that this is a difficult time and that the cost of a funeral can sometimes be a hardship – so we provide you with flexible options which range from the most very basic cremation at a cost of $1190, through to a full-service funeral with all services provided.
