Heart to Heart Counseling LLC is a practice of professional State Licensed Therapists and Counseling Interns that are also practicing Christians. The office atmosphere is calming and restorative and many of our clients comment on how much they like the location and feel of the environment. Owner April Lambert is an experienced Marriage and Family Therapist known in the community for her expertise and compassionate care; likewise, the counselors associated with this practice are committed to their clients and work to offer the highest level of excellence. We treat clients of all ages and issues with expert care and resources.
