Juujbox is a pick-up and delivery service for storing your stuff. It's like having your own personal self-storage facility in your home, but with more convenience and freedom. Coming home from a trip? We'll bring the boxes you need! Going to visit family for the holidays? We'll pick up your items for you! Moving to a new apartment? Leave our boxes at your old address, and we'll have them ready for you when you get there.
