In 2013, owner Rachael Cross took over the Ink Parlor in the heart of Kansas City Missouri. The shop is a vibrant, lively, one-of-a-kind space filled with a humble, yet spunky crew. You may come as strangers but you will leave as friends. Ink Parlor is a destination for KC natives and tourists alike. The tattoo artists at Ink Parlor work in a verity of styles including American Traditional, Japanese, black and grey, fine line, and more. Artists portfolios are filled with gorgeous floral designs, classic Americana, and a nod to fine art. Check out some of the best tattoos being made in Kansas City on our portfolio page! Tattooers are available for walk-ins and appointments everyday time permitting.
