Royal Rehab Private Petersham, previously known as MetroRehab Hospital, is part of the esteemed Royal Rehab Group – a 120-year leader in rehabilitation and disability services.

Our extensive network includes the public and private rehab services in Ryde, a state-of-the-art advanced therapy centre called Royal Rehab LifeWorks, disability support services, and a luxurious resort specifically designed for individuals with spinal cord injuries, Sargood on Collaroy.

Located in the heart of Sydney’s inner west, we have been delivering exceptional rehabilitation services for over 30 years and have earned a distinguished reputation for clinical excellence in areas such as neurological rehabilitation – including stroke and Parkinson’s disease, orthopedic rehabilitation, and reconditioning programs.

Our team of dedicated professionals in our rehabilitation hospital Sydney take great pride in their work and truly care about the wellbeing and successful outcomes of our patients. We invite you to experience the exceptional care and expertise that sets us apart.
