Idaho Youth Ranch teen counseling helps young people, ages 9 to 24, with proven outpatient therapy designed to address trauma, dangerous behaviors, and troubling feelings or experiences. At Idaho Youth Ranch our services are dedicated to teens and youth. You play a critical role in the journey to healing and our therapist will partner with you and support your role as a parent. If you are concerned that your teenager may be experiencing these challenges, now is the time for you to seek help. Idaho Youth Ranch therapists have the training and experience your child needs to find hope, healing and resilience in times of emotional crisis.
