With little warning, your life and the lives of your loved ones may drastically change due to the negligent actions of another. Your health, your ability to earn a living, and your ability to enjoy a normal life may all be seriously harmed, sometimes permanently. At Dempsey & Kingsland, P.C., we understand the problems and crises that arise from serious injuries and deaths resulting from fatal accidents. Those who cause these kinds of accidents should be held accountable. Founded in 1986, our firm has maintained a commitment to excellence in representing the seriously injured and their families in negligence cases involving medical malpractice, catastrophic injuries, workplace accidents, and wrongful death.
