Dribbin & Brown Criminal Lawyers in Melbourne is a specialist law firm focused on criminal defence, traffic law, and intervention orders. Accredited by the Law Institute of Victoria in these areas, the firm is led by principal lawyers David Dribbin and Michael Brown, who together have over 40 years of experience representing clients in varied criminal cases- from licensing applications in the Magistrates' Court to murder trials in the Supreme Court.

Working with a dedicated law firm is essential in criminal law, and Dribbin & Brown is here to give expert assistance. Unlike larger law firms, Dribbin & Brown only deals with criminal law matters, so our lawyers can provide the highest level of personalised representation. Our team of experienced lawyers is committed to securing the interests and rights of our clients and providing the best possible outcome.

Whether you have been charged with a criminal offence, suspect you may be charged, or need advice on criminal or traffic law, Dribbin & Brown Criminal Lawyers can assist. Our firm's experienced lawyers are always available to help at their Melbourne CBD office. Work with us and be assured that your case is being handled by expert lawyers with a deep understanding of the legal system.
