When you are accused or charged with a crime, it is important to take the charges seriously. Even the simplest charges can impact your life, which is why you need an experienced criminal defense lawyer by your side. The attorneys at Moses & Rooth Criminal Defense Lawyers have both worked on the other side of the fence. As prosecuting attorneys, we learned effective strategies for defending our clients. There’s nothing we aren’t prepared for when it comes to defending your rights. We have over 36 years of combined legal trial experience, handling some of the toughest cases in Central Florida. Contact us today for a free consultation.
