I am a native to Colorado Springs and a 3rd generation real estate agent, serving this community since 1997.

We desire to share our expertise in Colorado Springs, Denver, Pueblo, and surrounding communities.

How we can help:

• Working with local builders and developers.

• Managing personal investments in real estate & helping other investors find homes and sell properties while maximizing profit.

• Working with bank-owned & short sales properties, as they have become a very big part of my business and part of the market.

• Working with first time buyers and sellers, taking the time and moving at the pace that my customer likes.

• Dedicated to serving Military Families with housing needs.
