Luxury interior design for residential and commercial projects. Arielle (lugassy) rosenblatt has had a passion for design and fashion since she was a young girl. She pursued her dream by attending the rcc institute of technology in toronto, ontario. She excelled greatly and graduated in 2015. Soon after arielle moved to new york and started her career in interior design. Arielle's taste in her designs are a blend of luxury with the current trends. She artistically curates spaces with unique beauty while still reflecting the taste of her clients. Arielles goal is to create one of a kind spaces that will take your breath away.
