We raise our children to know about accountability and responsibility but when we are hurt and turn to the insurance companies for help we get such hostility and finger pointing!

So when enough is enough... We are here to help. We have been dedicated to level the playing field and getting the best possible recovery for our clients. We are dedicated to a team approach where YOU are kept informed every step of the process.

Since growing up and working all through High School and College in hospitals I have a intimate knowledge of medical issues and have contacts in such specialities as trauma medicine,ER medicine,ENT, Orthopaedics,surgical issues.

So when enough is enough... CALL ME or visit best san diego accident lawyer to help you and your family!
