Vaziri Law Group assists those who have been seriously injured as a result of another person's negligence. Since 2006, firm owner Siamak Vaziri has made it his mission to provide superior client representation to those who have suffered injuries in car accidents (including Uber and Lyft), dog bites, slip and falls, bicycle accidents, bus accidents, and other situations in which drivers or property owners were fully or partially responsible for his client's injuries. Located in Los Angeles, California, Vaziri Law Group Personal Injury Lawyers does not back down from a fight and takes great pride in helping to put their clients' lives back together through financial compensation.
