Dr. Williams, a board-certified Otolaryngologist (Ear, Nose & Throat Physician), just established Ear, Nose & Throat Specialists of Nashville. Apart from starting his own surgical practice on the Southern Hills Medical Center campus, he also founded the Voice Care Center of Nashville, where he treats and prevents voice issues in Christian and Gospel music artists. He is also an adjunct assistant professor at Meharry Medical College. Dr. Williams has a deep understanding of the numerous spiritual effects of voice problems in addition to the medical and surgical ramifications. He is also an independent gospel recording artist.
