Jungle Direct is a socially responsible and eco-friendly company offering an exquisite collection of handcrafted baskets woven with love using natural fibres. Our baskets are 100% biodegradable, leaving no trace on Mother Earth. We collaborate with indigenous communities and ensure fair compensation for their incredible craftsmanship. Embracing these communities' art forms and traditions, we guarantee the utmost quality in every basket we create.

At our core, we believe in the power of craftsmanship and authenticity. Every product is meticulously handmade and hand-checked. This guarantees that you'll not only receive a high-quality, one-of-a-kind item but also one that embodies the beauty and diversity of the vibrant communities we collaborate with.

Discover our stunning African baskets, available in various sizes and colours. And immerse yourself in the strength, durability, and sheer aesthetic beauty of our South American hammocks. Our extensive product collection includes Laundry Baskets, African Soap Packs, Mud Cloth Cushions, Dog Beds, Fruit Baskets, Planters, Bolga hats, and more.

If you are looking for unique and beautiful handcrafted sustainable and fashion-forward products at wholesale prices, look no further than Jungle Direct.
