Roosevelt & Cross Incorporated specializes solely in municipal securities, and has expertise in underwriting, sales, trading, investment banking, and credit analysis. We are able to originate new bond and note issues for state and local governments and market those securities to a large volume of retail and institutional investors. Today, we consistently rank as the most active municipal bond underwriter in New York. We are also a top-ranking underwriter in New Jersey and New England. Feel free to contact us today for more information about our services.
