Twin City Security is the Houston Security Company Trusted to Protect People and Assets Since 1982.

At Twin City Security Houston, we protect the people and property at government facilities, private businesses and public events of the Houston area. Facility managers, owners, and event coordinators consistently contract with us because we provide top notch security guard services, unparalleled customer service, and security solutions tailor made for every client.

When you contract with TCS-Houston, the security officers at your facility will be the best in the business. Our proprietary training system is the keystone to our excellent service. They get training in public relations, technology, emergency response, patrolling, deterring crime, safety, much more. Even after they report to duty at your facility, they continue to train for site specific responsibilities.

Twin City Security Houston serves commercial buildings, luxury condo suites, airports, hotels, hospitals, residential communities, government, school and industrial facilities. It provides 24-hour emergency response solutions, such as fire, first aid and continuous asset monitoring. Twin City Security Houston's client list includes Hilton Hotels Corporation, FedEx and BAE Systems. In addition, the company offers armed and unarmed security services for special events. Twin City Security Houston provides vehicle patrol and in-house proprietary solutions. The company offers assistance with the enforcement of life safety codes and the emergency evacuation of buildings.
