Kensho Clinic, based in Melbourne’s CBD, combines traditional Chinese medicine with modern dermatology to offer holistic treatments for skin, hair, and general wellness. Led by Dr. Diana Lui, a highly experienced practitioner, the clinic focuses on natural, drug-free solutions for conditions like acne, eczema, rosacea, and hair loss. Services include cosmetic acupuncture, herbal medicine, LED light therapy, and fertility acupuncture. Kensho Clinic emphasizes treating the root cause, not just symptoms, to restore balance and long-term health. Telehealth consultations are also available, with herbal prescriptions delivered across Australia. Discover effective, personalized care in a calming, integrative healing environment at Kensho Clinic.
