The Diamond Guild is a reservation based showroom that gives you a time and space to shop that is exclusively yours. When you reserve a time to shop you are contacted directly by our Director of Private Shopping who will spend the right amount of time with you to ensure that you will see what you are looking for when you arrive for your appointment. The Diamond Guild has New England's Largest selection of engagement rings, always at wholesale prices. We are custom design specialists so if you are looking to create something that no one else has, we will work with you to create the ring of her dreams. We provide you with a relaxed environment for stress free, private shopping.
