Treetops Bed & Breakfast in Blackburn is the perfect choice for anyone seeking welcoming Bed and Breakfast accommodation in Melbourne with a relaxed country-style atmosphere. Nestled in a leafy, National Trust–classified streetscape, this charming retreat combines heritage character with modern comfort. Guests can unwind in spacious rooms featuring private ensuites, air conditioning, heated towel rails, and cozy electric blankets, along with thoughtful touches like microwaves, TVs, and complimentary toiletries. A fresh, light breakfast is served each morning, and the property also offers pet-friendly stays, free parking, and little luxuries such as bathrobes and spa baths to make you feel right at home.

Beyond the rooms, Treetops provides the perfect setting for rest and relaxation. Guests can swim in the outdoor pool, soak in the heated spa, or enjoy the peaceful gardens alive with bird song. The location makes it easy to explore—local cafes, bakeries, and shops are just a short walk away, while Blackburn Station connects you to Melbourne’s theatres, galleries, restaurants, and sporting venues in only 30 minutes. Nearby, Blackburn Lake and scenic bushland tracks offer tranquil walks, and the property is an ideal base for day trips to the Yarra Valley wineries, Mornington Peninsula, Puffing Billy Railway, and Phillip Island. Run with care and warmth by Sue and Jim Chambers, Treetops is more than a place to stay—it’s a relaxing escape where every guest is treated like family.
