Hotel Narain Niwas Palace is a premier Jaipur heritage hotel, beautifully blending royal charm with modern comforts. Built in 1928 by General Amar Singh Ji, the Thakur of Kanota, this stunning palace reflects Anglo-Indian architecture and timeless elegance. Perfect for a luxurious stay or a destination wedding in Jaipur, it offers majestic courtyards, lush gardens, and royal hospitality. Guests can also enjoy authentic Rajasthani flavors at our heritage restaurant, known among the best dinner places in Jaipur. Recognized as one of the finest heritage hotels in Jaipur and a true heritage hotel in India, Narain Niwas Palace promises an unforgettable royal experience for every traveler seeking history, comfort, and culture in the heart of the Pink City.
