Happiyum is a trusted frozen food manufacturer in India and exporter of high-quality frozen potato products. We deliver French fries, hash browns, potato croquettes, nuggets, wedges, and more, all made with care at our modern factory in Gujarat. At Happiyum, we follow strict hygiene and safety norms. Our products have long shelf life and consistent quality as we use cold-chain and IQF (individually quick frozen) technology, so products stay fresh, tasty, and healthy without added preservatives.

We export our products internationally, including straight-cut and seasoned French fries, coated fries, potato flakes, ready-to-cook snacks, potato wedges, burger patties, hash browns, and potato smiles. Customers in many countries trust Happiyum frozen foods for their purity, taste, and uniform quality. Our export process follows all international food safety rules and packaging standards.

Happiyum aims to give buyers and distributors world-class frozen food products made in India. We are a preferred frozen food exporters in India for quality-driven buyers and global distributors. Contact Happiyum today to get premium frozen snacks and potato products from India’s trusted exporter.
