Shelly is a multi-sensory dining experience in Melbourne, offering immersive food, interactive storytelling and a three-hour shared table journey designed to awaken every sense.

Shelly is a truly unique multi-sensory dining destination in Melbourne, created by the team behind the acclaimed Shelanous. Designed to go far beyond traditional dining, Shelly delivers a three-hour immersive experience that blends exceptional cuisine, creative storytelling, live sensory elements and a vibrant communal atmosphere.

Guests are seated together at one long shared table, encouraging connection, conversation and memorable interactions. Each evening features a carefully curated tasting menu with matching beverages, where every dish is crafted to engage not just taste, but sight, sound, touch and aroma. The experience unfolds like a story, transforming dinner into an emotional and sensory journey.

Located in Caulfield, Melbourne, Shelly is ideal for couples, groups, celebrations, corporate gatherings and private functions, with flexible event options for up to 60 guests. Fully kosher and halal-friendly, and accommodating dietary needs, Shelly offers inclusive dining without compromise. Whether you're celebrating a special occasion or simply seeking an unforgettable night out, Shelly delivers a bold, immersive restaurant experience unlike anything else in Australia.
