Step This Way Podiatry delivers personalised and comprehensive care for people of all ages, addressing everything from routine foot concerns to more complex lower-limb conditions. The clinic is led by Bethany, a qualified podiatrist with a Master of Podiatric Practice from La Trobe University. She is committed to evidence-based treatment and combines her clinical expertise with a warm, client-centred approach.

With interests in diabetic foot care, dermatological concerns and sports injuries, Bethany provides tailored support for children, adults and active individuals. Using modern equipment and current best practices, she ensures every patient receives high-quality care suited to their unique needs. Book an appointment today to take the next step toward healthier, more comfortable feet.
