Antardhwani is a dedicated support group to spread awareness about the effective management of Ankylosing Spondylitis (AS) and Rheumatoid Arthritis (RA). Driven by its mission to connect patients, facilitate shared experiences, and promote awareness about the effective management of AS and RA, Antardhwani brings together a diverse network of rheumatologists, physical therapists, wellness experts, and patients. Together, they form a holistic support ecosystem that empowers individuals through education, empathy, and expert care.

Antardhwani operates as a CSR initiative of HitechDigital, a global leader in outsourcing solutions, and reflects the organization’s deep commitment to healthcare advocacy and community well-being. Headquartered in Ahmedabad, India, Antardhwani also operates support centres in Ahmedabad and Jaipur, serving as regional hubs for patient outreach and care.

We provide educational resources to help people understand ankylosing spondylitis and rheumatoid arthritis.
