Kuhdoo is a Texas-based skincare and grooming brand established in 2013, specializing in handcrafted tallow soaps and natural bath products made with simple, skin-friendly ingredients. Known for its small-batch production and high-quality formulas, Kuhdoo uses nourishing ingredients like beef tallow, essential oils, and natural butters to create moisturizing soaps for dry and sensitive skin. The brand focuses on clean, effective skincare without harsh chemicals, offering long-lasting products inspired by traditional soap-making and Texas craftsmanship.
