Rise Rejuvenation Center is a premier aesthetics and wellness med spa located at 5888 S 900 E, Suite 201, Murray, UT 84121, serving Salt Lake City, Park City, and the surrounding area. Founded by Traci Andreason, MSN, FNP-C — a board-certified nurse practitioner, advanced aesthetic injector, and national trainer for injectors — Rise takes a holistic, root-cause approach to beauty and wellness that emphasizes natural-looking results and long-term vitality.

The practice offers a comprehensive menu spanning four core categories. Aesthetic and laser services include Botox, Dysport, Sculptra, dermal fillers, lip filler, Kybella, PRP/PRF, microneedling, HydraFacial, chemical peels, BioRePeel, dermaplaning, BBL HEROic, MOXI Laser, Morpheus8, laser hair removal, and stem cell therapy. Wellness services include medical weight loss with GLP-1 medications, hormone replacement therapy (HRT), NAD+ infusions, IV therapy, functional labs, and massage. Rise also offers a specialized intimate health menu that includes vaginal rejuvenation, pelvic floor rehabilitation, postpartum rehab, menopause relief, and men's health services — a notable differentiator in the Salt Lake City market.
