"Discover the pinnacle of custom home building and luxury home renovations with McDowell Mountain Builders, a family-owned and operated company based in Scottsdale, Arizona. Since 2018, we have proudly delivered 5-star general construction services, specializing in custom homes and high-end renovations that transform every corner of your house.

Our expert team excels in creating bespoke living spaces, including stunning kitchen remodels, elegant bathroom renovations, and complete home makeovers. We also craft exquisite guest houses, casitas, pool houses, and outdoor living amenities tailored to your vision. One thing that separates us from other residential construction companies is our in-house interior design team."
